

CALAKMUL SOFA

Calakmul Sofa features a pyramid like structure, the framework is wrapped around with voluminous cushions, sculpting the body into its instantly recognisable and enticing form.

It symbolises an offering, a reflection, and an allegory of life's eternal journey and lineage, akin to the cyclical nature of the universe.

This collection draws inspiration from the awe-inspiring architecture and profound spirituality of the ancient civilization "Calakmul" who possessed a unique and deeply rooted connection with the earth, embodying their beliefs through sacred rituals that involved offerings and sacrifices, all centred around the concept of "life for life."
